JAPANESE TO HELP

"I hope to see the American fleet given an elaborate entertainment when it arrives here," said Manager Akai of the Yokohama Specie Bank this morning.

"I am sure that the local Japanese will raise funds to help entertain Admiral Evans and his men. I am willing to contribute towards the entertainment fund. I believe the other Japanese merchants will also do their utmost to entertain the fleet. The Hawaii Japanese will show their friendly feeling towards the Americans by joining in the entertainment."

Mr. Akai expressed himself as very much pleased to learn that the Honolulu merchants are making arrangements to receive Admiral Evans and his men. He asked whether the fleet will go to Japan, as the Japanese are anxious to receive it with a grand demonstration. Mr. Akai expects to see the local Japanese put up a grander reception than the Los Angeles Japanese are planning to do.

WALTER F. DRAKE FORMALLY INSTALLED

Revenue Agent Thomas Expresses Praise Of Collector

The Internal Revenue office was formally transferred to the new collector, Walter F. Drake, yesterday, and Mr. Drake was sworn in early this morning.

Walter F. Drake, who succeeds Roy Chamberlain as Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of Hawaii, has been in the employ of the department for several years. He was chief deputy under Mr. Chamberlain and was Acting Collector for nearly a year before his appointment by President Roosevelt to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mr. Chamberlain, who has entered the service of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

He is, therefore, thoroughly familiar with the work of his office.

"Mr. Drake knows as much about the office and everything connected with it as I do," said Revenue Agent (Continued on Page 4)

WALLACH IS STILL HERE BUT IS ILL

Calls Meeting At Which He Will Denounce Lane

J. Lee Wallach is still with us. He denies absolutely that he ever had any intention of leaving Hawaii by the Mowara or any other boat. But Wallach is ill. When he was seen at the Atcherley place this forenoon he was leaning on a cane and moved about with apparent difficulty.

"I have been sick for some time," said Wallach. "I have been exhausted by overwork, working, as I have, up till 2 and 3 o'clock in the morning. Last Thursday I broke down completely. My legs are paralyzed and I am ill all over. I have had to be in bed and Dr. Atcherley has taken care of my patients. Now I am going to move up on Emma street where I can have absolute quiet."

"I know that I am to be arrested," continued Wallach. "I don't care. If they want to put me in jail for treating the people I will go. I will tell them that I have been treating cases, leprosy and others who had bad sores and skin diseases, which the other doctors did not cure."

MOTT-SMITH GOES TO HAWAII TOMORROW

Secretary Mott-Smith leaves for Hawaii tomorrow to spend two or three weeks. He goes both for pleasure and on business, though pleasure and rest are most important in his program.

Mr. Mott-Smith has been working hard ever since he took office. While Governor Frear was away, he sat on the island most effectively, and incidentally handled such matters as the Kapa exchange—not yet completed—the Lanipahoehoe land lease, the Nuuanu dam investigation, etc. Lately he has had charge of the Tax Office investigation, which is now up to Governor Frear. In addition to all this, he has all the work of the issuance of certificates of Hawaiian birth to attend to.

Mr. Mott-Smith says that he expects to put in a couple of weeks enjoying himself. After that he will be ready for whatever may turn up. He will visit Kailua and see what is being done about the new court house, and will also visit the Pacific Sugar Mill plantation, in which he owns stock, and see how things appear to be there.

Governor Frear leaves about the end of April to attend the conference of Governors called by President Roosevelt to meet at the White House May 12, and during his absence Secretary Mott-Smith, as Acting Governor, will again sit on the lid.

SUPERINTENDENT CAMPBELL SATISFIED WITH JOHNSON

Public Interest Promises to Block Attempt of Achi Outfit to Create New Offices and Grab Them

"As custodian of the Territorial property loaned to the County of Oahu, I find from my own investigation that Col. Sam Johnson has kept everything in first-class condition, and from other sources I find that the condition of the stock is good. I feel that the Government property is in excellent hands, and I see no reason for making any change."

The above statement was made this morning by Superintendent of Public Works Marston Campbell (Continued on Page 8)

WILL INVESTIGATE BEFORE HE ACTS

Governor Frear has not yet approved the new schedule for the Hotel street line submitted to him last Saturday by L. Tenney Peck, President of the Rapid Transit, and states that he does not intend to take any action until he has thoroughly looked into the matter and is acquainted with all the facts.

This morning a Kaimuki delegation, consisting of Messrs. Thayer, Milton, and Cox, called on him and asked him to defer action until they had had chance to present their side of the controversy.

No Appropriation For Pearl Harbor

Washington, D. C., February 10. To Governor Frear, Honolulu, T. H. Committee rejected Pearl Harbor from Naval Bill. Intending having amendment offered in House and Senate. Possibly supplemental bill late. KUHIO.

The above disappointing cablegram was received by Governor Frear from the Delegate to Congress this morning. It is, of course, a sad blow to Hawaii, and those who have been working so energetically for an appropriation for a dry dock for Pearl Harbor, the widening, straightening, and deepening of the channel feel it greatly.

But hope is not lost yet. Although the Naval Appropriation Committee does not feel inclined to treat Hawaii as her citizens feel that they should be treated, there is a strong possibility that the many friends this Territory has in Congress will not see her suffer, even though the committee refuses to include the item in the appropriations.

Governor Frear commenting on the cablegram this morning stated that he still hoped that the item would finally be included. "President Roosevelt is so strongly in favor of the Pearl Harbor project," he said, "and Hawaii has so many friends in Congress on account of the visit last year of the Congressional delegation, that I do not look upon the action of the committee as final."

Kuhio in his cablegram also holds out some hope that the report of the Committee may not be adopted by the House and Senate.

RAINY SEASON HAS FINALLY SET IN

Honolulu had its first indication of the rainy season yesterday when the heavens finally opened with a characteristic February rain. Throughout the day it rained more or less in the city, but in the valleys the downpour was pretty steady, and it must have rained very heavily in the mountains, as the Moliili, Makiki, Nuuanu and Kailua streams were all carrying off an immense amount of water.

In the evening, when the downpour became worse, the Rapid Transit was thrown out somewhat, and one car was derailed near the corner of Pensacola and Lunalilo streets. Road Supervisor Johnson states that the only places where the city streets have been damaged was at the corner of Pensacola and Lunalilo and the corner of Pensacola and Beretania streets.

The rain gauge at W. B. Castle's place furnishes an interesting record of the storm and shows that a tremendous volume of water fell last night.

The rain gauge at 6 o'clock this morning showed that 1.66 inches fell in the twenty-four hours. At 5 o'clock last evening the gauge showed .31 inches, so that 1.29 inches fell during the night.

"One of the interesting features about this storm," said Mr. Castle this morning, "is that it is a high barometer storm. The wind has held to the north and the barometer remains high. I see the wind is variable this forenoon, and if it hauls around to the west or southwest, the barometer will fall."

Director W. B. Stockton of the Weather Bureau stated this forenoon that the rain gauge showed a rainfall of 0.51 inches yesterday and .83 inches during the night. The barometer was still unusually high, as it had been for quite a while past, but the barometer was not much of an indicator in the matter of rain in this country. He thought that very heavy winds must prevail between this port and San Francisco.
